Proposal for Investigation (page 2)

RESEARCH: What questions do you need to answer? Where will you look for the answers? Remember to look for reliable sources of information. Use the ABCDs of Website Evaluation form for all websites (page 18). Keep track of ALL resources used in your process journal as you must submit a Works Cited page with your presentation.

The purpose of your initial research is to help you develop a proposal for action. You cannot create a proposal for action until you have conducted research.

Questions? (who, what, when, where, and why?)

Possible resources: (Books, magazines, newspaper articles, websites, surveys, interviews, videos, etc.)

You must use a variety of resources!

Submit this page as evidence of investigating & planning.

Process Journal: How will you record the significant findings from beginning to end to show the development of your community project? Remember to include brainstorming, notes, actions, etc.
